

BAD SERVICE

I read on a forum about jackal hunting that I give bad service, some bored guy in Namibia decided to claim that he burnt his fingers buying from me when he bought nothing, its a shame some people are so jeleous of our website and business that they try slander others, it is not my fault we are the biggest concern making predator calling equipment and doing this full time in SA, pity these sorry people dont get a life and do some good instead of shooting off their mouths, I wrote him a mail asking him to meet me, we go for a walk, no policemen, no lawyers, no medical aid bills, no come backs, just him and me, and yes... he never replied, prefers sitting behind a computer spitting out rubbish, the planet is full of these such people all talk talk, nothing else. Here are a few references from today also about my bad service.

Man

Jy was wragtig Vrydag so flink dat ek nie eers gesien het jy het dit gestuur nie. Ek is na ons geprek hier by die kantoor uit - huis toe en kom nou eers hier aan.

Baie dankie ek waardeer dit en staan verbaas oor jou spoed – nie elke ou se werkswyse nie.

Seker maar Saterdag en die Stormers se “&*”%x2”-rugby wat jou so boos het?

Groete / Regards

André Goussard

Gary thanks for the excellent service and tracking number. This is the first time I have ever had such prompt service. I will definetly be contacting you agian for other items I want that I saw in your catalouge.

Thank agian

Ron
