

JAKKALS KURSUS

Hi guys! I just want to ask and I am not being arrogant or full of it, please read.

If you plan to do a course with us, PLEASE DON'T wait and put it off, thinking you will phone later and book.

As example, (and I am not telling lies) I took bookings for a group of students from Jan 1st, by January 8th I was fully booked and all deposits paid, since that date till today 20th January 2011, I have had to turn away 4 people who wanted to book as I could not accommodate any more. The course being March 3rd, 2011

I run a 4 day course at R1300-00 PP, every year in March, the date in March is determined by the moon of that year, so I cant put exact dates here, but it IS March every year.

Here are a few links;

PLEASE DON'T WAIT TO BOOK, if you need references that's no problem.

PLEASE don't think I am trying to push this issue because I don't have willing students, trust me I am not trying to market the course because I need students, I am pushing the issue to inform the public that it is best not to wait to long before booking.

Subject: Predator Hunting Course (12 to 15 March 2010)
feedback,

Gary,

Thanks once again for the excellent course and practical training I could experience with you during the past weekend in the Free State open plains !!

The practical calling and night hunting was really spectacular !

The following highlights will for sure make me come back for more next year :

- In two nights practical hunting being successful and getting Blackbacked Jackal on two different farms !!
- Setting up cages (vanghokke) practical.
- Setting up Trail Cams and to get nice pictures of Blackbacked Jackal and even the extremely shy Aardvark !!
- Setting up the hunting vehicle with equipment and camouflage.
- To experiencing the Night Vision, Infra Red and FoxPro Callers in action !

It was a real pleasure meeting you and thank you very much for sharing your many years of predator calling experience and expertise with us.

Please book my seat for next year again please.

Thank you also for the nice photos taken during the course.

Kind regards

Leon Henrico

Professional Hunter, Namib Adventures

PLEASE DON'T PUT OFF BOOKING OR AGAIN YOU WILL BE TURNED DOWN.

A personal note;

I was told by surfers of the internet that various people within the jackal control business make it their business to down talk what Feather & Fur manufacture, and make it business to speak badly of products we produce. The items manufactured i.e.; lights, chairs, cages, hand calls, prices, urines etc are made to top standards and quality is top class. As for prices, if you think an item is too much go buy it someplace else, that's a simple equation.

In over 10 years I have never had a single complaint from lights, electronics, hand calls etc, the attacks that are directed towards us is either because we are not one of the "Manne" so to speak, or because we are maybe English, or we have no interest in being involved with a certain group of people who seem to like talking down about a business, products that they never bought personally, and if they did why didn't they complain. They seem to get joy by commenting on the DVD with secrets on calling, but again haven't seen it personally but comment about it in a harsh way.

Maybe it is all because we are revealing things they don't want revealed so speak down about us, our products and seem to have a thing about us having SPIES in the other forums and these people report back to me personally, what absolute garbage, pity the people concerned don't get a life and put an end to the crap they seem to like spitting out, BUT as my partner commented "jealousy is a bugger" maybe he is right, they also wish they could have a site like Feather & Fur.

Maybe they see us as competition or just don't like us because of whatever, BUT me – I don't go around knocking other people, it's a pity these people don't grow up, but the exposure they give us just gets us more web time.

Strange how some people get kicks out of trashing others, but after doing this for many many years, offering courses, selling items, and having a fantastic website, I am totally content, if others see me as a direct threat, tough takkie, go get a life.

I have been doing this for years, it is my heart and sole, so to all you amazing jakkals jag jagters who seem to like spitting out garbage, how about first meeting me, testing the stuff we are producing now, and then making your own judgement afterwards instead of spitting out garbage about a person and his business and you have not even met him as yet, you may sing another tune thereafter. Go get a life.

Here is a mail I got from a client discussing the bullshit people talk and why they say stuff without even knowing you at all; This is very good, read.

Dit is een van die dinge wat ek eerste opgemerk het giving free advice, - alhoewel dit 'n besigheid vir jou is, is nie alles te koop nie - baie is gratis op jou site. Dis miskien hoekom jy opdraande kry uit sekere kringe. Kyk na hierdie sinario: Piet het 'n moerse probleem met jakkalse. Hulle vreet hom van sy grond af. Hy het al die boy op die perd, slagysters, gif en slim-maak-in-die-nag probeer, ma niks werk nie of hy vang en maak alles vrehk behalwe daai oukie met die skrefies ogies. Nou hoor hy van Gert wat in die nag kom met GEAR en en en en en net dit skiet wat geskiet moet word en hy het resultate. Natuurlik sal Piet dan maar oë toekny en vir Gert kry. Nou skiet Gert al op 10 of 15 of 20 plase en dit raak winsgewind vir ho, maar as hy uitgaan, gaan hy alleen of as jy wil saam gaan sit jy in die bakkie. Alles natuurlik om te verseker dat hy sukses beryk, maar ook om te verseker dat dit wat hy geleer het nie rerig "gekopie" word nie sodat hy maar weer en weer en weer moet kom. So Gert is eintlik onvervangbaar in sy oë. Dit het hom 'n klomp skoolgeld gekos om suksesvol te wees ens ens ens, ma soos mens se kind mos is - inhalig! So dit is SY GEHEIM. Sulke ouens spandeer geld in video kamera's op die stoel ens en maak miskien DVD's oor jakkals jag, maar as jy dit koop en daarna kyk gaan dit net oor een ding - DIE OU KAN SKIET EN HY WEET HOU, maar hy leer jou SKWAD. Ek het 2 sulke DVD's oor nagskiet en het 'n biekie gesien wat ek kon toepas, maar daar word niks gesê oor hoekom hy wat doen nie. Al wat gewys word is hoe hy skiet en so 'n biekie oor sy toerusting. Nou ek wil nou nie hierdie een voorbeeld gebruik en veralgemeen deur alle jakkalsjagters in sy kamp te plaas nie, maar seker ouens kan dalk vir jou kwaad wees as jy GOEIE inligting VERNIET gee. Ek dink van jou inligting is dalk hul "secret" en van jou inligting is in teenstelling met wat hulle doen. 'n Mens wil nou maar een maal net nie erken as jy iets verkeerd gedoen het nie en dat jy nie als weet nie. So soos WATER VAN 'n EEND SE RUG AF - Laat hulle ma BLA BLA BLA en doen jy ma net dit wat vir jou werk. 'n Verkoopsman wat sy klient se behoeftes in ag neem i.p.v om die produk se "gadjets" te probeer verduidelik, sal 100 in daardie berdyf bly. Die beste klient is die tevrede klient ongeag of hy dit by jou kon kry of nie. Opregte advies. More kom hy weer terug na jou vir iets anders omdat jy sy behoefte eerste stel en dalk het jy dan waarna hy soek.

And just for you that seem to like trashing my website – here is another reference I received today (UNEDITED).
If you think its bull I will supply you his contact info;

Subject: SITE

Man ja - dit is vir my duidelik dat dit al is wat jy doen en dat jy toegewyd is, jy probeer help waar jy kan met die beste inligting/ondervinding moontlik. Dit is ook vir my duidelik dat jy of die ou wat die inligting vir jou daarop sit miskien 'n biekie tekortskiet as dit kom by webwerf ontwerpe (nie dat ek IETS daarvan weet nie) want vir my is daar baie inligting wat ek miskien 'n biekie meer sou groepeer en die blad eenvoudiger maak. Ek lees iets en as ek dit later weer soek dan kan ek nie 'n hek onthou waar dit was nie, maar dan kom ek weer op 110 ander dinge af, so dis miskien reg so en ek is nie 'n computerkid nie - bottom line - die inligting wat werk is daar en die ou wat belang stel sal soek, anders sal hy ook nie vir die jakkals in die veld kan/wil soek nie. So my eerlikke opinie - dit wat jy benodig om Mr Kakkals en sy huishouding die "hiernamaals" in te stuur, is daar en nog baie meer - GREAT STUFF!!

Not so bad at all is it!

If you need to book a course please dont wait
